

PSALMS 91 BIBLE STUDY

Facilitators: Elvin and Andrea Price

WRITER: SOME SCHOLARS BELIEVE MOSES IS THE WRITER

Dear God, Thank you for your love, mercy, and protection. As we study your word, we ask that you grant us understanding. This we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Describe a time when you know that God's protection kept you safe.

In verses 1-2, what are some words used to describe God?

What does it mean to dwell in the shelter of the Most High?

The writer creates great imagery with this text. What are some of the dangers described in verses 3-8? How does the writer describe God's protection from these dangers?

PSALMS 91 BIBLE STUDY

Facilitators: Elvin and Andrea Price

If you are dwelling with God, what do verses 9 and 10 let us know about his protection?

What type of protection is promised if you put your trust in the Most High? (Verse 11) Bonus: Where in the New Testament are these verses quoted and by whom?

Read verses 12 and 13. With the help of angels, what will you be able to do if you trust in the Lord as your refuge?

Who is speaking in verses 14-16?

What 8 promises does God make in verses 14-16?

PSALMS 91 BIBLE STUDY

Facilitators: Elvin and Andrea Price

Psalm 91 puts a lot of emphasis on God as the protector, but what is your responsibility in your relationship with God?

When terrible things happen to you or to others, how do you know that God is still providing protection?

What difficulties are you facing now that you can trust God to help you with?

After reading this text, how do you find comfort in knowing danger is everpresent?

Describe this text in one sentence.